AT THE TABERNACLE.

Again the Evangelists were greeted with a full and attentive audience. The meeting at 3:30 p. m. bad quickened the interest of every soul present, as it was one of those tearful, prayerful, soul-stir-ing meetings that no pen can describe, servative and truthful: and the influence of which is most potent and irresistable. The thome this evening was "The Three Religious." I. That concerning Noah, the ark and the flood. The speaker gaven very graphic James Kelley came in from Pratt last discription of the difficulties of persuading people to enter the ark. Supposing M. Benjamine, of Kansas City, is at the the ark to be the church of today and modern excuses for neglect to have been employed when Noah warned the Antideluvians of their danger. He said they had hog, bear, goat, sheep, etc., in the ark and what was peculiarly strange was that they were all peaceable. So it is in the church. There are men who are of a hogish disposition and others from whence these traveling jockeys came or whither they were bound. They have the time inhabit Some months ago a great deal of horse stealing was going on inGreenwood county mostin and about the city of Eureka the county seat of that county. The horse thieves were hunted, but the most diligen search amounted to naught until the sheriff of Greenwood county received word from the authorities here that his men were probably here. He came here several days ago and succeeded in apprehending one of his men, a man named Reed earch was made for the other suppos thief, George Allen, by name. He and issistants searched everywhere but could ot find their man, when at last they miled upon Chief of Police Burrows to aid them. Mr. Burrows, assisted by Policeman George Dennis, in less than three hours afterwards got the man and turned him over to the sheriff, when both of the supposed horse thieves were locked up in their guilt. THE WICHITA OF TODAY.

The following letter from the American Investments, from the pen of Capt. J. C.

"It may be interesting to many of your readers to learn what progress toward a sound conservative basis this city is mak-ing, and what has been done and is now being done in that direction. As a jobbing being done in that direction. As a jobbing and manufacturing point, we have been steadily forging ahead, until at this writing we have sixty-seven jobbing houses in various lines and eighty-four manufactories of all kinds, both lines doing a healthy, increasing business, gradually extending out, and today supplying a great part of Kansas, western Missouri, western Arkansas, Oklahoma, northern Texas, eastern Colorado and New Mexico. The wheat grop, which is now secure, and The wheat crop, which is now secure, and by the time this reaches you will begin to fail before the harvester, was never better in yield per acre, and finds us with about In yield per acre, and finds us with about 35 per cent increase over average acreage. HORSE THIEVES ARRESTED.

For some time a band of horse-traders have been stationed in this city who have been making big trades of various kinds, their victims in most instances being guileless country boys. The boy, Ray McMurray, who is charged with stealing letters from the post boxes, had his hearing before Commissioner Sherman a day or two ago and was bound over to appear in the district court. Upon bail he was released. The other man. Girard, who is charged with robbing postoffices, gave $1,500 bail to appear at next term of court and is now out of jail.

A man, while jumping from an electric car on North Main street last night, struck one of the iron poles and fell unconscious but revived a short time after. He is a stranger in the city, so he said, and gave the name of J. T. Andrews. Street car people say they wonder that not more people are hurt in this manner when so many persist in getting off on the wrong side, the side next to the poles.

It is understood that the fair association bave made arrangements to set apart, during the fair, a day for each political party and call it Republican day, or Democratic day or Alliance day, as the case may be, Upon these days speeches can be made by the politicians of the party the day repre sents, and politics talked in various ways. The association have been considering this but is not yet fully decided if it will be so arranged.

Two men, a preacher and a lawyer, attracted considerable attention on North Main street yesterday afternoon. The trouble arose over some legal transaction and after short but very warm debate, the lawyer hit the preacher with his umbrella, when the preacher used his fist that one may experience no trouble in her wholesaling, with her gospel songs and getting a car after the services in the her lively drummers. Ray, H. F. Sewell, of Redlands, Califor nia, who is spending the week in the city has been secured to speak at the Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow afternoon. Dr. Sewell was formerly a successful lawyer in Pueblo, Colorado, and since entering the ministry has been eminently successful in winning men. All who can attend are assured that they will spend a pleasant turfice, and profitable hour from 4 to 5 tomorrow Primi at this service.

A large number of Wichita people are off for the summer and others are going, some to watering places and mountain resorts. The gentlemen for the most part are for recreation and healthy sports. Capt. Fred G. Smythe, who never fails of an outing, is off today with his wife for Chicago, whence he will ship by lake to Toronto, and thence up among the pisca-torial lakes of Canada. The weather has been so pleasant at home of late, the thermometer often registering as low as 55 and 60, and even down to 50, that it will be hard to find a more delightful place than right at home. We have no doubt Wichita will be quite famous as a summer resort at some time in the future.
